Death List in Atomic-Like Eruption of Volcano in the Philippines Mounts to 2,000

Manila, Dec. 5.—(AP)—An official estimated today that 2,000 perished in yesterday's atomic-like eruption of Hibok Hibok volcano on Luzon island in the southern Philippines.

The estimate was made by Gov. Pascual Ysalina of eastern Mindanao province. He came from nearby Mindanao island to take charge of rescue and evacuation.

The known toll of dead is 187. Red Cross headquarters in Manila after the first blowoff.

Thick smoke and dense smoke still are pouring from the crater, the Philippine army commander in the Mindanao area reported after a flight over the island.

Lt. Col. Patricio Monzon said: "It was so warm I couldn't get my plane close enough for a good look."

"Camiguin looked like a burning, smoking flattop (aircraft carrier) as we hovered above it. Smoke billowed up to 7,000 feet and enveloped the whole island."

Heat and fumes hampered searches, digging for victims in the hot lava rocks and ash.

A steady stream of evacuees fled in all types of watercraft to Mindanao Island and other nearby islands.

Ten villages on the island were believed destroyed by ash and lava. Philippine news service correspondents who reached the island last night said they believed about 80 per cent of the villages' inhabitants had perished.

Camiguin is 13 miles long and nine miles wide. Hibok Hibok, 5,620 feet high, is virtually in its center.

The island, 40 miles north of Mindanao, has a population of 45,000.

Two U. S. Air Force planes left Sangley Point Naval Base near Manila this morning for the island.

U. N. Assembly Disarmament Talks Making Progress

Geneva, Dec. 5.—(AP)—United Nations Assembly President Luis Pavero said today Russia and eastern powers are clarifying positions as never before in disarmament talks here.

As the fifth session of the disarmament conference today there was no indication that West and East had any substantial agreement on the world's arms race.

Big Four went into their conference this afternoon. Mexican diplomat is president of the sessions attended by Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Gromyko, U. S. Ambassador C. Jessup, British Minister Selwyn Lloyd and French Minister Jules Moch.

At three o'clock a disarmament commission to prepare a treaty for the regulation, reduction and balanced reduction of armed forces and armaments was set up.

It tells the commission to reduce of armed forces to adequate for defense but not aggression.

Guaranteed disarmament de-escalation on a continuing basis arms including the atomic.

There must be effective international inspection.

YUGOSLAVIA FREES POLIC ARCHBISHOP

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Dec. 5.—(AP)—The Yugoslav government today gave Roman Catholic Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac his "conscience" freedom.

Stepinac had been held in Lepa prison near Zagreb for years on charges of collaboration with the Axis powers.

The 63-year-old priest will go to his native village of Krasic near Zadar to live, the official government news agency Tanjug said.

Ident Demonstrators Hurt in Egypt the Interior Ministry Is Surrounded

Cairo, Egypt, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Police today on student demonstrators who surrounded the interior ministry building here. First to say many of the students injured.

The demonstrators were in protest against the killing of Egyptian in clashes with British troops last two days in Suez. Demonstrations took place in Alexandria.

A pro-government newspaper today said some students were killed. Another news agency reported 40 students were injured and given medical treatment.

Students, numbering several hundred, threw stones and burned branches at the police.

Military Rites on Saturday To Honor Pfc. Fellows, Hero From Warren Killed in Korea

Accompanied by a military escort from the West Coast, the body of Pfc. Marshall G. Fellows, USA, killed in Korea last August 27, will arrive in his native Warren county on the Pennsylvania train due in Warren at 7:40 p. m. Friday.

Pfc. Fellows' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Fellows, 323 East Fifth avenue, received official notification this morning in a telegram from the Department of the Army. The body arrived in San Francisco, December 2, on an Army transport.

Relatives of the young hero will be escorted to the railroad station by members of Chief Cornplanter Post 135, American Legion, and the body will be removed by the Lutz-VerMilyea Funeral Home to the Salvation Army chapel where the funeral service will take place at 2:30 p. m. Saturday. Major Charles Schaffer, commanding officer, will be assisted by the American Legion in giving full military honors to the returned soldier.

After the arrival of the body at the chapel, calling hours will be observed during the evening and again on Saturday from 10 a. m. until the funeral hour. American Legion members will serve as bearers and full military rites will be rendered at the graveside in Pine Grove cemetery, Russell.

The Post flag at the American Legion Home in Pennsylvania avenue, west, will be half-masted from noon, Saturday, until sundown.

Senate Looks for Fireworks Over Plan To Investigate Haluska Bribery Charge

Harrisburg, Dec. 5.—(AP)—The senate looked for fireworks today on the heels of its order to investigate charges by Sen. John J. Haluska (R-Cambria) that he was offered a bribe to vote for the cast off income tax proposal.

Sen. John M. Walker (R-Allegheny), Republican floor leader, said the charges, if substantiated, could end up in the attorney general's office.

Walker's resolution to create a 10-man committee to conduct the investigation was adopted unanimously by the senate last night.

Haluska himself was away on a deer-hunting trip. Reached at home in Patton, Haluska said he was "exceedingly gratified" the senate set up the investigating committee.

Focal point of the probe, the first of its kind in the legislature in 10 years, was the remark he made to a Democratic meeting in Ebensburg, Oct. 18. Haluska was quoted as saying:

"I was offered enough that I would not have to work for the rest of my life if I would withdraw my opposition to this income tax measure."

The hearing promised to be equal in controversy to an investigation conducted by the 1941 legislature into a statement by Sen. Anthony Cavalcante (D-Fayette).

At that time, he was reproved for failing to back up his charge that money was offered for votes in support of a bill to increase truck weight limits.

Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, senate president pro tempore, was expected today to name five Republicans and five Democrats to the investigating committee.

Apart from the development on the Haluska charges, the senate concerned itself with a painstaking review of Gov. John S. Fine's budget in quest for $47,000,000 in economies.

The senate passed last night a package of house-approved measures to make broad changes in Pennsylvania's liquor laws. One is a provision to allow taprooms and hotels to sell bottled liquor after 9 p. m., closing of state liquor stores.

A controversial bill was introduced in the senate to carry out consolidation of Philadelphia's city and county governments.

BUDGET RESOLUTION

Harrisburg, Dec. 5.—(AP)—A new senate resolution today called for public hearings next week on Pennsylvania's budget difficulties.

Introduced in the senate yesterday by Sen. Joseph J. Yosko (D-Northampton), the resolution asks that consideration be given at the hearings to "possible economies to be affected by the elimination of waste, extravagance, loose spending, overlapping and red tape."

Passengers on the bus, riding home in the supper time rush hour darkness, didn't know what was happening until it was all over.

MURDERER INSANE

Greensburg, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Jack Tressler, 20, of New Kensington, was taken to the Farview Hospital for the criminally insane today after a court ruled he was not legally responsible when he shot and killed his mother, Mrs. Genevieve Bloes, 37, Nov. 14.

Greensburg, Dec. 5.—(AP)—A proposed new law would permit taprooms in Pennsylvania to sell bottled liquor for the first time had legislative approval today.

The measure was one of a package of house bills passed by the senate last night making broad changes in the state's liquor code.

The major change would relax the state's liquor monopoly, established in 1933, to permit bottled sales outside state liquor stores for the first time.

Such sales, however, would be limited to one quart per customer, and taprooms would be permitted to sell bottled goods only after the 9 p. m. closing time of state stores.

The law also would require a fixed mark-up of 15 per cent over the state store price of each bottle of liquor sold. Clubs would not be permitted to make bottled sales under the proposed law.

The liquor package approved by the senate represents a compromise between temperance forces and liquor interests in Pennsylvania on several long-standing points of controversy in the liquor code. Some of the bills must go back to the house for concurrence in senate amendments.

Other changes proposed in the package would:

Prohibit minors from delivering liquor or beer.

Prohibit the cashing of relief checks in licensed establishments.

Allow the state liquor control board to add a handling charge to the sales price of alcoholic beverages.

Eliminate the requirement of serving food to qualify for a hotel liquor license.

'SHAKEDOWN' TESTIMONY IS BEING PROBED

Washington, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Frank Nathan, self-styled "dealer" in many enterprises, gets a chance to reply today to testimony that he tried a half-million-dollar tax shakedown, operating behind a screen of big Washington names.

Nathan allegedly described as a "combine" connected with him.

Abraham Teitelbaum, wealthy Chicago attorney, yesterday electrified a house ways and means subcommittee with the shakedown testimony concerning Nathan and Bert K. Naster, a Hollywood, Fla., businessman.

Teitelbaum described Naster and Nathan as confederates in an attempt to get $500,000 from him and his partner last winter. Teitelbaum said the two told him they were connected with several highly placed Washington officials who could fix tax troubles for a price.

All the officials whose names were used immediately issued indignant denials.

Teitelbaum said this "clique" or "combine" of government officials—he used both words—was represented to him as "looking around the country" for "soft touches"—wealthy men with tax troubles.

The attorney said Nathan and Naster told him he would be in "bad tax trouble" and probably would go to jail unless he paid off with $500,000—$125,000 at once and $375,000 within 72 hours. He and his partner, who was not named, were to put up the money, he testified.

He gave this testimony to the house ways and means subcommittee, which has been investigating Internal Revenue scandals and Justice Department handling of tax fraud prosecutions.

The committee was also told that Nathan once boasted he had Theron Lamar Caudle, ousted assistant attorney general formerly in charge of tax prosecutions, in his "vest pocket."

Teitelbaum testified that he was under investigation for allegedly understating his income for the years 1943-47 at the time Nathan put the proposition to him. He said his case was sent to the Justice Department for fraud prosecution about two weeks ago.

At the conclusion of the day's hearings, Chairman King (D-Calif.) termed the record "amazing." And Rep. Byrnes (R-Wisc) told newsmen "if half these charges are true, they will expose a scandal comparable with the Teapot Dome scandal."

The Teapot Dome disclosures shook the Harding administration and resulted in the jailing of Secretary of Interior Albert Fall, among others, for manipulation of government oil lands.

Measure Aimed At Relief Chiselers

Harrisburg, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Public posting of the names of persons on relief would be permitted under a new bill before the state senate.

Introduced last night by Sen. Fred P. Hare, Jr. (R-Somerset), the measure would immediately committee approval.

Hare said the bill would cut down what he termed "relief chiseling" in Pennsylvania.

"If such persons know their names may be published for everyone to see, they are much less likely to apply illegally for relief aid," Hare said.

The measure would empower the Department of Public Assistance to order local boards to post such lists whenever it deemed advisable.

Continued High Temperature Poses An Unexpected Problem For Successful Deer Hunters

Deer and hunters continued to pour out of Warren county Tuesday night and today as the augmented population of the Allegheny National Forest continued a rapid decrease, due largely to the warm weather which has characterized hunting season so far.

Tuesday's kill continued to be heavy and a number of deer were seen on their way to distant points, this morning. The necessity of finding refrigeration for kills has partially broken up many a hunting camp. This year, quite contrary to past seasons, a hunter has found it necessary to head for home almost as soon as he bagged his deer, in order to save the meat. In previous years, those who made kills early in the season would wait around camp until the other men met with success, before shoving off for home.

There is less tendency, this year, to stretch the animal on the fender of a car. Conservation agencies have pointed out that much meat is lost because of its proximity to motor warmth during a long trip home. More and more hunters come equipped with racks and tarps to enable them to transport their valuable kills on tonneau tops while many small trucks also are used by hunters.

The high meat prices have done much to make hunters conscious of the value of their deer.

Purely coincidental is the fact that it was Bernard Snow of Cleveland, who brought down a pure white five-point buck early yesterday near Neiltown. Silhouetted against the dark sky as it pranced along a ridgetop, the albino was a clear target for the man named Snow, 125 feet away on lower ground. Another albino was killed in Forest county by Dominic Bengivengo, 16, Meadville High school freshman, as his first deer. It had seven points.

A successful woman hunter in the Kinross area was Mrs. Mary McGuire of Corry, who killed a four-point buck weighing 120 pounds.

Both Youngville policemen, Chief Ed Chapel and Patrolman Rex Agnew, have been successful in killing bucks as was Patrolman Charles Musante of Warren. Just as the Warren man brought down a four-pointer, he saw an eight-pointer standing in the background. His kill was at Morrison Run.

A fatality in Hickory township, Forest county, was reported yesterday when Raymond Miller, 28, of Carnegie, was killed just before the five o'clock deadline, by a stray bullet. Pennsylvania State Police at Tionesta were holding another member of the four-man hunting party for questioning. Police said there were no witnesses to the killing, the men being widely separated at the time of the shooting.

District game protectors are spread out through the area again today, kept busy as they make their annual check on deer being brought out of the woods. Illegal kills, it is reported, are few. Proper tagging of all bucks killed is being thoroughly checked.

WOMAN ATTORNEY IS CLEARED OF CHARGES

Pittsburgh, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Mrs. Marjorie Hanson Matson, assistant district attorney of Allegheny county, is cleared today of charges of leftist associations.

A board of five court-appointed lawyers absolved her yesterday in a report to Judge Samuel A. Weiss. Judge Weiss named the board to study the charges.

Mrs. Matson took a leave of absence after Charles J. Margiotti then attorney general, accused her and demanded her removal.

District Attorney William S. Rauscher refused to dismiss Mrs. Matson because the charges had not been proved.

TWO SCHOOL DISTRICT BILLS BEFORE FINE

Harrisburg, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Two bills were headed for Gov. John S. Fine's desk today to liberalize tax-raising efforts by financially distressed school districts.

The bills would unanimous senate approval last night. They were approved earlier by the house.

Under one measure, a school district would be permitted to impose taxes under the 1947 local tax law to the extent that total revenue would not be greater than the sum collected by a 15-mill real estate tax based on market value of property.

Former Boys' Work Secretary in Warren Takes Important Position in New Jersey

Announcement was made today in Orange, N. J., of the appointment of Clarence M. Hengst, former boys' work secretary of the Warren Y.M.C.A. and father of James C. Hengst, the present boys' work secretary, as executive secretary of the Russell Colgate Y.M.C.A. branch of the Oranges and Maplewood, N. J. Mr. Hengst, Jr., leaves Warren tonight to re-enter Naval service as a junior grade lieutenant aboard the USS Salpan.

The former Warren man, who served here under A. F. Kottcamp in the middle twenties, will also be director of the Oranges' Y.M.C.A. Camp Arrowhead-Lenape in the Bear Mountain Inter-State Park near Tuxedo, N. Y.

"Captain" Hengst, as he is familiarly known, served in the Coast Artillery during World War I, graduated from George Williams College, took post graduate study at University of Chicago. In college and the YMCA, he has been an active player and coach in baseball, basketball, football and soccer. His hobbies include coins, Indian lore and fishing.

For nearly thirty years, Capt. Hengst has directed YMCA camps in Associations where he served as boys' work secretary, including Chicago, Fort Wayne, Warren, New Castle, Ind. He was also city-wide boys' secretary in Fort Wayne, Ind., county YMCA secretary in Coatesville, district secretary for the Pennsylvania State YMCA, executive secretary of the Kearny (N.J.) YMCA and goes to the Oranges from the Hoboken YMCA where he was boys' work secretary and camp director.

Mr. and Mrs. Hengst reside in North Arlington, but will move to the Oranges in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Hengst have a summer home at Findley Lake, N. Y.

REDS ACCUSED RESORTING TO 'DOUBLE TALK'

Munich, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Allied negotiators asked questions for two hours and a half at an Alice-in-Wonderland sort of Korean truce session today—and got the answer to just one question.

The Reds defined what they meant by a neutral country and gave examples: Communist Czechoslovakia and Poland, or non-Communist Switzerland, Sweden and Denmark.

The Communists want neutral troops to supervise any truce reached, and only at "ports of entry."

Allied subcommittees at Panmunjom asked 30 times what the Reds meant by "ports of entry." They didn't get an answer; the Reds said they already had answered clearly.

Subcommittees scheduled another meeting for 11 a. m. Thursday (9 p. m. Wednesday EST) to try again. It will be their third such session. Their job is to work out means of making a cease-fire effective and supervising an armistice.

As the Wednesday meeting adjourned a Tokyo broadcast by the "Voice of the United Nations Command" accused Communist negotiators of using double talk to gain political objectives through the back door.

The broadcast said the Red proposal to ban all troop replacements would have the effect of removing foreign troops from Korea. This was one of the Reds' first political demands. Under the Red plan troops leaving for sickness, injury, rotation or expired enlistment couldn't be replaced.

A U. N. command communiqué said one thing was accomplished at Wednesday's session. That was the identification of the sort of countries the Reds would be willing to have supervise a peace. Countries named were precisely what had been expected.

Both the communiqué and U. N. spokesman, Col. Howard Lewis, cautioned that no country was selected; this was just an exploratory phase.

The Allies have not accepted the Reds' neutral supervision idea. The U. N. command wants free-roving Allied Red joint teams.

The Communist subcommittees themselves named only Poland and Czechoslovakia. Under questioning from the U. N. they agreed Switzerland, Sweden and Denmark were all right, too.

But the Allied questioning on other points was not so successful. The communiqué said "the Communists repeatedly gave evasive answers or refused to answer."

Bill to Eliminate Seats in Congress

Harrisburg, Dec. 5.—(AP)—One Democratic and two Republican congressional seats in Pennsylvania would be eliminated under a new reapportionment plan submitted in the senate last night.

The plan was advanced in a bill introduced by Sen. George M. Leader (D-York), who termed it "the result of one of the most exhaustive and non-biased studies made."

Leader said the study was made by the League of Women Voters.

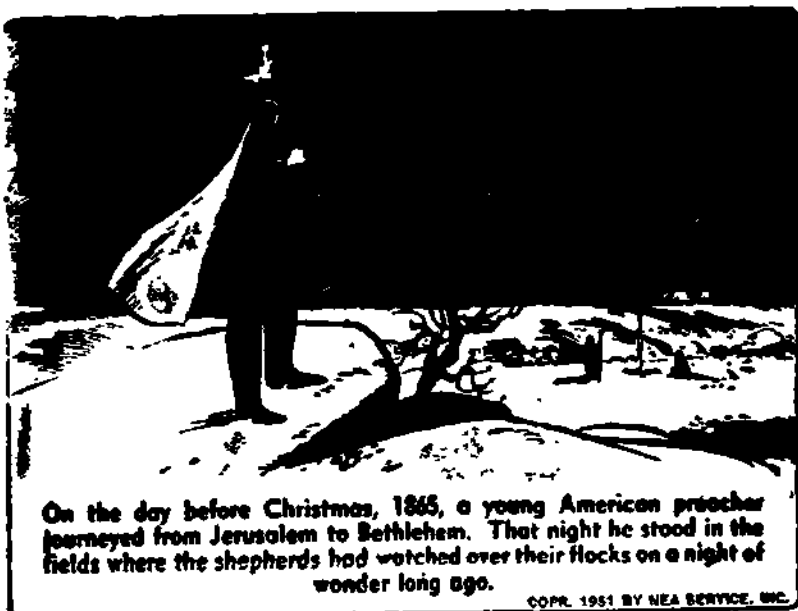

The measure would eliminate the 14th District held by Rep. Joseph Carrigg, Susquehanna Republican; the 33rd District, held by Mrs. Vera Buchanan, McKeesport Democrat, and the 17th District, occupied by Richard M. Simpson, Huntingdon Republican.

Each of the districts would be absorbed by surrounding districts to reduce the number of congressional districts from 33 to 30 in line with population changes uncovered by the 1950 census.

THE SONGS OF CHRISTMAS

On the day before Christmas, 1845, a young American preacher journeyed from Jerusalem to Bethlehem. That night he stood in the fields where the shepherds had watched over their flocks on a night of wonder long ago.

The shepherds were still tending their flocks. As he watched, Phillips Brooks, destined to become one of the most beloved and famed of American clergymen, stirred with emotion.

In his mind he looked back through the centuries to that other unforgettable night. Three years later he was to perpetuate the beauty of the scene in an immortal Christmas carol.

DEER STOLEN

City police yesterday were investigating theft of a deer from the porch of a residence at 22 West Fifth avenue. Occupants of the residence told officers that the deer had been hung there Monday evening by hunters boarding there; and that a party of hunters staying next door, three had left for Ohio about midnight Monday. Opinion is that the Ohio men absconded with the animal. Police checked various cold storage rooms about town yesterday in an effort to locate it.

HIT AND RUN AT KANE

An 85-year-old retired telegrapher at Kane was struck and killed by a hit-and-run driver at 12:30 a. m., Tuesday as he was walking home. He is George Crane, who was fatally injured on South Fray street about two blocks from his home. Policeman Elmer Jones said the body was dragged about 100 feet. A hubcap was discovered at the scene; however, police were not sure the cap was from the hit-and-run car. Police and County Coroner Elmer Beatty are continuing the investigation and it was expected that an inquest would be held some time today at the Hill Funeral Home.

CUSTODY SUIT SETTLED

A temporary out-of-court settlement of the custody of two grandchildren was disclosed yesterday by attorneys for the grandparents who live in Oil City and Philadelphia. Dr. and Mrs. James E. Wallace, parents of Judith, 6, and Eileen, 3, were killed April 26 in a plane crash. John F. McKenna, of Philadelphia, the maternal grandfather, had temporary custody of the children after the accident. McKenna said he had reached this agreement with Homer C. Wallace of Oil City, father of the deceased physician, until permanent custody arrangements could be made. Wallace visited the children in Philadelphia last June and, without permission of the McKennas, took the children back to Oil City with him. McKenna then filed a technical charge of kidnapping against Wallace who admitted having the children but refused to disclose their whereabouts. Attorneys announced that under a temporary agreement the children would divide their time between Oil City and Philadelphia. They are to go to Philadelphia for Christmas holidays and will spend Easter in Oil City.

Pennsy Is Running Second Sections

Second sections of Pennsylvania Railroad passenger trains, for Christmas mail and express only, started their runs this morning with a little different plan than usual.

In the morning, the second section leaves Renovo at four a. m., running behind the regular west-bound No. 581 and proceeds as far as Warren only.

Returning east in the evening, the second section will load at the freight station, carrying no passengers, and will leave for Renovo at 8:30 p. m.

Passengers will be carried on the regular trains with No. 581, west-bound, leaving Warren at 7:29 a. m.; and No. 580, eastbound, leaving Warren at 7:52 p. m.

PRODUCING ACREAGE IN OIL TRANSACTION

The Healy Petroleum Corp., of Bradford, and the South Penn Oil Company have purchased jointly, for what was described as a "nominal consideration," 107 oil-producing acres in Hamlin township, from Sylvania Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the United Natural Gas Company.

The lease is in Warrant 2688, Hamlin township, McKean county, and is described as a narrow strip adjoining the eastern lot line of the former Phoenix Oil Company which was jointly purchased by the Healy and South Penn firms last July.

The acreage acquired, a statement said, is the only oil-producing lease between the former Phoenix farms and the extensive gas-producing area operated by United Natural, with headquarters at the Halsey compressor station. Healy and South Penn are now developing the former Phoenix leases and will simultaneously drill the newly-acquired land.

Prices Stable And Shelves Stocked In Time for Holidays

The first Christmas under peacetime price controls will find prices stable and shelves stocked with goods ample to meet normal seasonal demands, according to William J. Collins, director of the Erie District Office of Price Stabilization, who pointed out that this will be in sharp contrast with the situation a year ago, when prices were skyrocketing in the post-Korea inflation and scarce buying was creating artificial shortages.
"We are fortunate that in spite of our extensive defense effort we are still producing amply to meet our needs," said Collins. "We can still feel free to do our regular Christmas shopping without feeling unpatriotic, as long as we follow a few simple rules which a wise shopper should always follow anyway. Our advice for the Christmas season is—buy what you need, but buy wisely, and don't pay more than ceiling prices."
"We are asking merchants, in the rush of holiday business, to take extra precautions to assure that they are complying with price regulations. We cannot emphasize too strongly that any general relaxation, either by the merchant in pricing or by the consumer in launching a buying spree, could help to set in motion another inflationary spiral. OPS will be making special checkups during this period to assure compliance with regulations, but even more important is good sense and restraint on the part of buyers and sellers."
Collins stated that OPS is providing a special safeguard for the public this year by keeping special watch on fly-by-nights who open shop just long enough to catch the holiday crowds, and suggested shoppers might do well to remember the legitimate dealer who keeps his prices within OPS ceilings is always cheaper in the long run and is deserving of patronage.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Editor Lowrey,
The new proposed tax law for Pennsylvania would increase the state tax rate on bequests to charitable and religious works from 10% to 15%. It means that each time some one bequeaths $1,000 to a hospital, school, charity or church the state will take a cut of $150. Since such bequests are made for the common good and in many cases make certain burdens unnecessary for the state, I think gifts of this nature should be exempt from the tax aimed at collateral heirs or distant relatives.
If my Uncle Ben leaves me $1,000, the state can take out $150 if it needs the money and I will smile. I would like to have the state allow Uncle Ben to leave the local hospital or his church $1,000 knowing that there will not be a cut of $150 taken out. For that matter, I think the present $100 cut should send.
Maybe we should all write letters to Senator Leroy Chapman and Assemblyman Allen Gibson and request that they sponsor amendments to make the needed change in the proposed tax law. We must write today because this tax law will go through within the next two weeks.
Cordially,
I. M. Charitable

Cub Pack Number 2 Has Interesting Meeting at Beatty

A very interesting meeting was held Monday evening in Beatty Junior High School auditorium by members and leaders of Cub Pack Two, sponsored by Johnson P.T.A.

Opening ceremonies were conducted by Den 5, with the recital of the Pack Law. Willard Briggs then announced the theme for the month, "all Cubes to be good followers, cheerful givers, and diligent helpers for the Christmas that lies just ahead." The Pack Flag was awarded to Den 2 for the month of December, with 100 per cent attendance by both Cubes and parents.

Cubmaster Jim Nordine made the following awards to deserving Cubes: Silver Stars to Welland Briggs, John Tickner and Jimmy Chitester; Wolf Badge, David Frantz, Pete Ostergard, Lou Halter, Bruce Wyman and Rick Gebhardt; Bear rank, to Tommy Bjers and Jimmy Nordine; Arrow Points, to Corky Carlson, Pete Ostergard, Lou Halter, Jimmy Nordine, Bruce Wyman, Albert Camigliano, Tommy Bjers, Howard Kinney, Albert Howard and Rick Gebhardt; Bobcat pin, to Rick Gebhardt.

A large collection of fine toys given by the Cubes were presented to Miss Claire Elliott, director of Children's Aid Society work, who expressed her hearty thanks and gave sincere praise to the Pack for the wonderful work it has been doing in recent years to help those who are less fortunate. A hearty thanks was given Blain Mead for the use of his truck in transporting the toys.

Four short puppet shows were presented to an appreciative audience, with Den 2 giving "Little Red Riding Hood," Den 4, "Old Woman in the Shoe," Den 8, "Goldilocks and the Three Bears" and Den 10, "Three Little Kittens."

Also during the meeting, a fire drill was held, the entire auditorium being emptied in 45 seconds.

For the closing ceremony, the benediction was given by Den 5.

RUSSELL

Russell, Dec. 5—Jimmy Baisstow, Raymond Shields, Jr., Tommy Wood, Ludwisk Hollabaugh, Judy Atkins and Sherry Sabar were presented Bibles during the Sunday morning church school session, having had perfect attendance records for a year ending October 1, 1951.

John Titchner and Myrtle Baisstow received books for their perfect attendance awards, having been presented with Bibles last year.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pearson were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Staff and Major Thilken of the Erie Salvation Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lindell accompanied by Fred Anderson of Stoneham, attended the wedding of Jacqueline Hancock and Dec C. Lydell in the Westminster Presbyterian church in Jamestown Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whisner and son, of Streeter, Ill., have moved here and will reside with her mother, Mrs. Edna Safford, for the present.

Penney Authorizes Year-End Payments For All Associates

The board of directors of the J. C. Penney Company has authorized a special year-end payment of an amount equal to two weeks' pay for all full-time associates who have been employed for the full year of 1951 and proportionate amounts for extra and part-time associates and those employed less than a year.

All Penney associates except management staff members, whose earnings are determined largely by the company's long-standing profit-sharing plan, will share in the payment. It will be made on December 15 at each associate's December 15 pay rate.

Mr. Joe E. Brown, manager of the J. C. Penney Company store, said that more than 50,000 Penney associates throughout the United States would participate in the payment, including 20 of the Warren, Pennsylvania, store.

He said the company president, A. W. Hughes, in a letter to store associates, pointed out that the payment was "based upon the results attained for 1951. An extra payment of this sort for a company of our size represents a very large amount. The possibility of similar payments in future years will continue to depend upon the results attained in those years."

Mr. Hughes added:

"We are happy that the company is able to recognize associates' efforts in this special, substantial manner in addition to the regular company provisions for associates' benefit, which include the Sick Benefit Plan, the Gratuities Death and Dismemberment Benefit Plan, the Thrift and Profit-Sharing Retirement Plan and others."

LITTLE LIZ

If you can't get along with one man it may be partly his fault. If you can't get along with a number of men, it's your fault.

★ RUTH MILLETT ★

Face Your Problem; You Can't Keep Running From It

SHE has been divorced once. And now she isn't completely happy with her second husband. She would be, except he doesn't seem to like her son by her first marriage. He isn't mean to the boy. Just indifferent. And so she is wondering if she should leave her second husband and see if things won't be better for her son.

Isn't it a little late to start thinking of the boy. Take away a boy's real father from him and you put him in an unhappy situation then and there.

Then marry again and hope for the best and if it happens that new father and son don't hit it off, there's more unhappiness.

You can't undo all that just by deciding to call it quits again. Chances are you aren't going to spend the rest of your life trying to make your son happy. Even if you did—you'd probably just end up by spoiling him or making him feel, when he is grown, that he should be forever indebted to you.

MAKE THE BEST OF THE SITUATION

NO, it's high time now for you to make the best of a situation. To grow up enough to realize that you can't keep running away from trouble.

You've got a problem all right. But it is one you'll have to solve—within the framework of your marriage. So your husband isn't as interested in your son as he would be in one of his own. Well, he is not his own.

Face that fact squarely instead of mooning over how you would like the relationship to be.

Then go on from there to do all in your power to encourage the two to understand each other. And above all, let each feel that he has your love and interest and attention.

It may not be easy. Not as easy as running away. But sometime in life we have to quit running. And it looks as though you have reached that point.

MISPAH CLASS HOLDS MEETING

Mrs. A. I. Satterthwaite entertained members of the MispaH Class of Akeley Sunday school for a regular meeting. Games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Salte Holt and Rita Holt. During the business session, a hostess committee was appointed, consisting of Jane Rogers, Rita Holt, Orville Edquist and Harry Holt. Plans were discussed, also, for the Christmas party to be held at the church on December 19. The birthday collection was taken in honor of Ida Grace Larson, and, to conclude the evening, refreshments were served by the hostess.

Story of the Madonna

All women of Warren are invited to enjoy "The Story of the Madonna," to be presented by Mrs. Clement B. Yinger of Bradford for the Women's Association of First Presbyterian church at 1:15 p. m. Thursday at the church. The program, which is one of the outstanding ones planned for the year, will follow a 12:30 p. m. luncheon for Association members. Reservations for the meal have been handled by Mrs. Clair Hulings and Mrs. W. G. Boreman.

Mrs. Yinger is known by many in Warren, having given a dramatic program at the Woman's Club last season. She is a graduate of Boston University, with special study in religious drama and playwriting. She writes and presents in colorful costume her own dramas and much of her work has been published. Her monologues and plays in miniature all present incidents from the Bible.

Busy Session Held By Glade WCTU Members

There was a good sized attendance for the monthly meeting of Glade WCTU, held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Summerville, 710 Madison avenue. President Isabelle Richael, in charge of the meeting, also offered the prayer, closing with silent prayer in memory of three members who have died in the past year. Mrs. Jane Klenck conducted devotions and reminded members to pray for the Billy Graham Revival to be held in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Bessie Walters offered this prayer.

Officers gave their reports, which showed that 59 of 106 local option campaigns were won; that "Living Stones" is the theme for 1951-52; that eight billion dollars were spent for liquor in the past year; that an Afghan and several other gifts were sent to Aspinwall Veterans' Hospital.

Mrs. Bessie Johnson, county vice president, gave a very fine report of the recent state convention pointing out as highlights that

Pennsylvania led in the greatest amount of fruit juices sent to men in service; 40,000 members is the goal for the state this year; and Pennsylvania now has more "dry spots" than before prohibition.

After the Birthday List had been read and prayer was offered by Laura Johnson, refreshments were served by the hostess and her committee. Alice Smedley and Nellie McNinch.

CHURCH WOMEN

The December meeting of the Warren Council of Church Women will be held in St. Paul's Lutheran church at 2:30 p. m. Friday, when missionary societies of Epworth Methodist and the hostess churches will entertain. All members and friends of the Council are invited and urged to attend this gathering.

SIXTH ANNUAL MARINE BALL

Following last night's meeting of the Leatherneck Detachment, Marine Corps League, the committee announces it has secured the music of Orrie Beebe and his orchestra for the sixth annual Marine Ball to be held at the Woman's Club on Christmas night, December 25. Dancing will be from nine until one and formal dress will be optional, the committee reports. All members of the unit are urged to be on hand for another meeting at 7:30 p. m. next Tuesday to plan last-minute details for the party.

BLUE STOCKING CLUB

On Tuesday morning, members of the Blue Stocking Club enjoyed an interesting trip through the Warren County Dairy through the courtesy of its manager, G. S. Frantz. Luncheon was then served in the company's social rooms at 12:00 noon. Hostesses for this meeting were Mrs. Warren Carlin and Miss Mabel Higgins.

A short business meeting was conducted by the vice president, Miss Ethel Morris, Mrs. Beecher Rutledge, chairman of CARE packages for Korea, giving a fine account of that work accomplished this year.

WSWS MEETING

All members and friends are urged to attend the meeting of WSWS of First Evangelical United Brethren church, to be held in the Folkman parlors of the church at 7:45 p. m. Thursday, since this gathering will conclude the contest which has been underway. There will be a devotional period, a program, and concluding, refreshments served by Mrs. Ed Schwing, Mrs. Reuben Swanson and Mrs. James Miller.

CAFETERIA BENEFIT

Announcing that it will hold a pie social at 8:00 p. m. Friday in the community house, Garland PTA reports all proceeds from the affair will be used for the school cafeteria fund and a large turnout of patrons is hoped for.

BETROTHAL—Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tranter, 8 Cottage Place, announce the engagement of their daughter, Constance Ann, to Laurence Horine Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Warner, Blue Ridge Summit, Pa. Miss Tranter is a graduate of Warren High School, Class of 1948, and is presently a senior at Grove City College. Mr. Warner is an alumnus of Grove City College and in his junior year at Western Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh. No definite plans have been made for the wedding.

BPW CHRISTMAS PARTY

Warren Business and Professional Women's Club members are looking forward to a Christmas party for their December dinner-meeting at the YWCA activities building next Tuesday evening at six o'clock. Arrangements for the affair are in charge of the public affairs committee, with Dorothy Baker as chairman; Ethel Kittner, Hazel Keller, Margaret Miller and Ruth Woodin.

Those who are unable to be present for the dinner are reminded standing reservations must be canceled no later than Friday of this week by calling Ethel Kittner, 639 or 726-J. Members are also reminded to bring a gift for the exchange.

LUDLOW

Ludlow, Dec. 5—Missionary Prayer Day was observed at Moriah church, Sunday evening, with Miss Edith Larson as leader, and with Susan Anderson giving special music. The Teen-age Group was represented by Mary Jo Beckwith and Kathryn Swanson. The Litany of Intercession was conducted by Mrs. Ernest Swanson, president of Moriah Society. Prayers were given by Miss Edith Larson, Mrs. Frank Nelson, Miss Tillie Olson, Mrs. C. E. Carlson, Mrs. John G. Johnson, Mrs. Axel K. Anderson, Mrs. Adolph Johnson, and Mrs. Lawrence Larson.

Morning services were held at Moriah church observing the First Sunday in Advent. The Rev. Hans Pearson used as his sermon topic, "The Advent King," and the Moriah choir used as their anthem, "Come Thou Long Expected Jesus."

The First Mission church held services, Sunday evening, with the Rev. Wallace Carlson giving the message.

The Moriah Luther League was entertained, Thursday evening, at the church with a fine attendance. The meeting was conducted by the vice president, Gordon Mortenson. The program consisted of two readings by Ronnie Gilfert and Nancy Carlson. This group is carrying on a home-made candy sale as its project for the Upsala Chapel Fund. The league decided to hold a Christmas program and party following Christmas.

The Lutheran Circle held its regular meeting, Wednesday night, at the church with 18 members in attendance. During the business meeting, which was conducted by the president, Mrs. Melvin McCleary, it was decided to give several Christmas gifts, one of which is ne wcolars for the choir robes. They also contributed four CARE packages of the surplus food variety. Plans went forward for a thirteen supper, December 19, with an exchange of 50-cent gifts. Mrs. R. E. Wenstran and Mrs. Eugene Huber were hostesses for the evening and served coffee at a beautifully appointed table.

The Intermediate Girl Scouts holding regular meetings on Tuesday evenings with Miss Tillie Olson as leader. The Girl Scouts have placed a Christmas Tree in the Bloomquist Grocery for a Christmas Show for the Salvation Army. Interested people are invited to place gifts or articles of food under the tree. The tree will be taken down on December 15 and the gifts taken to the Salvation Army at that time.

One of the evening classes and the afternoon class of Home Nursing finished their courses during the past week. Each class had 12 members. Each course consisted of six lessons of two hours per session. Mrs. Eugene Johnson of Kane instructed the afternoon division and concluded her course Tuesday. She was complimented by her class with a gift and a party. Mrs. Laura Johnson, administrator of the Kane Community Hospital, taught the Tuesday evening class and finished her course of teaching Friday evening, at which students surprised her with a party and a gift of appreciation. Mrs. Cleon Longshore is instructor for the third group which will complete its work in December.

WARREN'S LOSS IS NAVY'S GAIN when Lt. (jg) James C. Hengst, USNR, shows off for the East coast on the train this evening to report for active duty aboard the USS Saipan at Norfolk, Va. Friday, Jim, as he is known by his many friends, came to Warren over three years ago as boys' work secretary of the YMCA and since that time has become one of Warren's finest youth leaders. In addition to the great job he has done in promoting a top program in the "Y" boys' department, he started the Youth Canteen and has been program director of the "Spot" since its official opening on January 27, 1950. Mrs. Hengst plans to remain at their East street home during her husband's absence.

MENU SUGGESTIONS

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

STEWING meat, a budget item, can get top table rating if skillfully prepared. Don't be afraid of what may look to be startlingly different combinations. This goulash with sauerkraut will be a surprise eating treat—neither unusual and the kind of food that sticks to the ribs.

Hungarian Goulash with Sauerkraut
(Serves 4)

Two pounds lean beef, veal or pork, cut for stewing. 2 tablespoons paprika. 1/2 teaspoon salt. 2 onions, chopped. 2 tablespoons butter or margarine. 1 cup beef stock. 1/2 cup tomato paste. 2 1/2 pounds sauerkraut. 1/2 pint sour cream.

Season meat with paprika and salt, brown with onions in butter in bottom of heavy saucepan. Add stock and tomato paste and slowly boil for 30 minutes. Add sauerkraut and continue cooking for about 2 1/2 hours, or until meat is tender to the fork. When ready to serve stir sour cream into gravy. Shoulder of lamb is another budget meat and it, too, can be transformed into deluxe eating. Try this foreign dish and your American taste will be delighted.

Lamb All Baba
(Serves 4)

Two pounds shoulder lamb in 2-inch squares, salt and pepper, 1

eggplant, 2 shallots, 2 tablespoons bacon fat or olive oil, 1 teaspoon marjoram, 2 cups of beef bouillon, 1 cup uncooked rice, 1 can tomato paste, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine.

Peel and cube eggplant and soak in ice water heavily salted 15 minutes. Sauté lamb and shallots in bacon fat or oil until browned. Place in casserole. Add drained eggplant, seasoning and 1 cup of beef bouillon.

Brown raw rice in dry skillet; remove from fire; stir in tomato paste and additional cup bouillon; add mixture to casserole. Stir all together, dot top with butter and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for an hour and a half.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Pineapple juice, ready-to-eat cereal, fried eggs, fried bologna, enriched toast, butter or fortified margarine, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Toasted peanut butter and chili sauce sandwiches, chopped lettuce and tomato sandwiches, canned peaches, tea, milk.

DINNER: Hungarian goulash with sauerkraut, potato pancakes, rye bread, butter or fortified margarine, raw carrot sticks and celery, cranberry-apple tarts, coffee, milk.

Let Love Alone

By KATHLEEN HARRIS

Chapter 20

SHE told Aunt Amanda the whole story and Aunt Amanda listened without comment except for a grunt here or there. Jan found that it helped to make such full confession, just as it helped knowing that Aunt Amanda was here and would stay, not just until Eve and Jan's new stepfather returned from their honeymoon, but as long as Jan needed her.

"You're a very foolish girl," her great-aunt said when Jan had finished. "And that young man of yours was foolish too. You both got what you asked for—playing with love. Love's a serious business. That's the trouble with young people. They don't realize how serious it is."

"I know now," Jan admitted. She had learned the hard way.

"You won't believe this," Aunt Amanda stated firmly. "But some day you'll be happy again, too. You'll even love someone else again—unless this first love of yours turns out happily ever after, as it might."

"Oh, there's not a chance of that!" Jan objected.

"You never can tell," Aunt Amanda looked as wise as an old owl.

This did not keep her from thinking about Ray. She could not help wondering how he was, if he still was making such good progress and if he had left the small hospital in Philadelphia. She had hoped that she would receive some word about Ray, if not from him. Bernice could have written. She had not promised to do so, but that was true. Jan had not asked her to write. However, when Jan had told Bernice that she felt she was her friend and knew she could depend upon her friendship, Jan had felt that Bernice would send some word.

And then the day came when she did hear from Bernice. It was not a letter. It was a long distance call from Washington.

"Me! Oh, no," Jan began, but now her heart was in her throat.

"Yes, you, and no one else ever," there was a note of sadness in the older girl's voice now. "He thinks I'm wonderful. Ray always is saying that. He's so grateful to me that he doesn't want me to do anything more for him, like this operation. But I'm flying to New York as soon as you get here. Jan, that's another reason you have to come so someone will be with Ray. I'm going to get the finest surgeon available and bring him back with me. And Ray is going to have that operation," she wound up this long conversation, "and have his chance."

"You are wonderful," Jan said humbly, gratefully.

Bernice's low laugh came back over the wire. "Not as wonderful as you, my dear. For you were the one who helped Ray get well so fast before, and now when you're with him, when you tell him you do love him, I believe that he will walk again."

She had not asked again if Jan would come. There was no need for now that Jan knew that Ray needed her. Nothing on heaven or earth could have kept her from going to him.

Jan was so anxious to get to Ray she wished Mr. Peters was on hand to charter that private plane again. But she found when she called the airport, that there was a flight to Washington that same afternoon and that she could get a reservation.

She got Aunt Amanda to pack for her, as Jan was much too shaky and had to get ready herself.

"I told you you'd see that silver service I gave you—and all of those other presents—one of these fine days," Amanda said.

"I still don't know for sure about that," Jan returned. Dear Aunt Amanda. She would always be grateful to her. There was no need to try to tell her how grateful. Aunt Amanda knew, Jan felt certain of that.

She had stood by the ship, as she had expressed it, and more important, she had taught Jan how to stand by.

As long as she remembered anything Jan thought that she would never forget the light that sprang into Ray's blue eyes when he saw that she had come back.

He had been bent over a portable tray, writing, as she approached. He did not glance up until she stood in front of him. It was then she saw the light that came into his eyes, transfiguring his whole face, more eloquent than any words of greeting.

"Jan! You came back. It's really you!"

"Nobody else," she assured him. She wondered if he would see the love shining in her eyes, if he could not hear her heart beating.

"But why, I mean, I don't understand." A faint frown creased his high forehead. Some of that light dimmed. "Did Bernice, or someone, send for you?"

Jan had expected such a question. She did not think a little understanding. A faint frown creased his high forehead. Some of that light dimmed. "Did Bernice, or someone, send for you?"

Effield to Have Santa Claus Fair

Effield, Dec. 5—Plans are being made for the Santa Claus fair to be held tomorrow evening at 7 p. m. by the Progressive Woman's Club. The fair will be held in the home of Mrs. J. H. Legion and will feature a large turnout of children and adults from Warren and McKean counties. The fair is expected to be a success and to raise funds for the club. The fair will feature a variety of items for sale, including hand-made gifts, baked goods, and other festive items. The fair is open to everyone and is a great opportunity for the community to come together and celebrate the holiday season.

RING OUT, YE BELLS, RING OUT—With the table decorated in holiday colors, the Prints Company's store family sat down to a delectable dinner, last night, in the cedar room of the Blue and White restaurant, for its annual Christmas party. There was an exchange of gifts, with Mrs. Mary Wells acting as proxy for Santa Claus, and the evening was spent in a social way, including two rousing games of canasta. The season's greetings were extended by E. G. Bantz, store manager, in a few appropriate remarks. Included in the above picture are the guests: E. G. Bantz, manager, Frederic Prints, Alice Anderson, Betty Sowa, Dorothy Moll, Nestore Bartholomew, Mrs. Mary Wells, Mrs. Myrtle Miller, James Simmons, Florence Church, George Nelson, John Craig, Pearl Johnson, Kendall Morrison Joanne Zavacky, Lucille Bartsch, Florence Katon and Frank Manfrey.

Retail Group Holds Annual Christmas

The December meeting of the Retailers Committee of the Warren Chamber of Commerce was held this week downtown in the Blue & White and was in the form of their annual Christmas party. Ben Kinnear, general chairman, presided, and after the business session was finished, the grab bag was opened and some (valuable?) gifts were passed out, each member present having added one to the collection.
The 1951 Committee will serve until the annual retailers' election, which takes place in February.
A change in holiday store hours has been established, and this year the stores will remain open until 9:00 p. m. on Friday and Saturday both this week and next. The week before Christmas stores will be closed on Monday and Tuesday evenings but open until 9:00 p. m. Wednesday the 19th through Saturday the 22nd.

CPL. LEROY MOLL IS AIRPLANE POLICEMAN

Headquarters of the 6161st Air Base Wing in Japan, from which the B-29 Superfort bombers make slashing attacks against the Communists in Korea, reports the task of guarding the base's security will be the job of a Warren airman, Cpl. Leroy E. Moll, who recently arrived in the Far East.
Son of Mrs. Bertha Moll, 2041 Pennsylvania avenue east, Cpl. Moll will serve as an air policeman with the 6161st Wing. His job, like that of his civilian counterpart, will be protection of the base and its personnel.
Enlisting in the U. S. Air Force in July, 1949, young Moll received his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, before going to Air Police School at Tyndall AFB in Florida. Upon completion of the course at Tyndall, he served at Dow AFB in Maine until his transfer to the Far East.
An alumnus of Warren High School, he enlisted for service immediately following graduation.

HIGH SCHOOL SCENE OF IMPRESSIVE RITE

In a formal candle light installation, following a plan recommended by the national organization of the Future Business Leaders of America, Gerald Newton, director of curriculum and instruction in Warren High School, inducted into office the elected leaders of the local branch of the business club in the high school auditorium this morning.
Officers taking part in the ceremony were Ronald Snyder, the new president of the organization; Richard Hegerty, first vice president; Mary Jane Paris, recording secretary; Marilyn Smith, corresponding secretary; Earl Campbell, senior treasurer; and Joan Angelotti, junior treasurer.

DOCTOR FREED IN DEATH OF PATIENT

Bridgeport, Conn., Dec. 5—(AP) Superior Court Judge Kenneth Wynne today dismissed the manslaughter charge against Dr. Donald F. Gibson, Danbury physician. Judge Wynne agreed with a defense contention that the state had failed to produce proof of a guilty connection between the dapper, 50-year-old Dr. Gibson and the death July 26, 1950 of Elizabeth M. Ayres, 74-year-old spinster, whose estate he inherited.
Gibson had been charged by a grand jury with causing Miss Ayres' death by the "reckless and negligent" administration of drugs.

GRIM REAPER BUST

Washington, Dec. 5—(AP)—Death took a husband and wife within 18 hours yesterday. Mrs. Sarah Ritchie, 77, died at her home in nearby Finleyville. The husband, Thomas C. Ritchie, 83, was a victim of injuries suffered in an auto accident last Saturday. He died in Monongahela Hospital.

OBITUARIES

LAURA FRANCES HAWK
Laura Frances Hawk, aged 70 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Warren Blum, November 29, after suffering a long illness. She had previously been a patient at Warren General Hospital, having been admitted on November 8 and discharged on November 26.
She was born at Bismark, W. Va., on July 7, 1881, and had been a resident of Mt. Storm, W. Va., since her marriage in 1903 to John Hawk, Jr., deceased, until she came to Clarendon October 19, 1951. She was a member of the Methodist church at Mt. Storm for 35 years.
Surviving are three sons, John and Elmo Hawk, Clarendon RD 1; Dewey Hawk, Mt. Storm; also two daughters, Mrs. Blum, Clarendon, and Mrs. Thomas Streets, Elk Garden, W. Va.; a step-daughter, Mrs. Clay Cosner, Bismark; three brothers, S. M. Hanlin, Ed D. Hanlin and G. W. Hanlin, all of Mt. Storm; 19 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.
Services were held at the Methodist church in Mt. Storm with a large attendance. Interment was made in the family plot at Bismark at 3:00 p. m. December 2.

MRS. WILLIAM HUCKABONE
Anna Dailey Huckabone, wife of William Huckabone, died at her home in Irvine at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday after a long illness. She was born at Dunn's Eddy on September 9, 1869, and had been a lifelong resident of the county. She was a member of the WSCS of the Irvine Methodist church.
Besides her husband, she leaves one son, John Dailey, Irvine; also four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
Friends will be received at the family home, starting this evening and services will be held there at 2:30 p. m. Friday. Rev. C. C. Ross, Methodist minister, will officiate and interment will be made in Westview cemetery at Starbrick.

HARRY J. DILLEMUTH
Oil City Derrick: Funeral services for Harry J. Dilleuth who died at 2 a. m. Sunday in his home, Washington, D. C., were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Crawford funeral home.
Rev. Norman Adams of the First Presbyterian church officiated. Interment was in Grove Hill cemetery.
Palbearers were Ross Ruhlman, John Cunningham, Thomas McLaughlin, John Boyle, Ed Lowrey, H. Kleen.
Attending from out of town were Helen, David, Harry and Jean Seybert, of Washington, D. C.; Loretta Dilleuth and Arthur Dilleuth, both of Cleveland, O.; Arthur Dilleuth and Richard Dilleuth, both of Erie; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bruener, of Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dilleuth, of Titusville; Mrs. Emma Follett, Mrs. and Mrs. Meril Boutwell, Mrs. Regis Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Benzie and family, Ed Lowrey and Ross Ruhlman, all of Warren.
Members of the Elks paid respects to their deceased brother Monday.

MARGARET E. WYATT
Word is received here that Mrs. Margaret E. Wyatt, widow of Myron E. Wyatt and mother of Mrs. Fred A. Schuler, died at her home, 419 Diamond Park, Meadville, Monday evening. Aged 84 years, she had been ill only a short time.
Mrs. Wyatt was a member of First Presbyterian church at Meadville; a charter member of Mead Chapter, Order of Eastern Star; a member of the Pomona, Calif. Daughters of the American Revolution; and in 1946 observed her 50-year membership in the Meadville Grange. It is recalled that her late husband started the oldest Chevrolet agency in the world still in operation, his son, J. S. Wyatt continuing the business.
Besides this son and her daughter, Mrs. Schuler, she leaves a son, J. S. Wyatt, continuing the business.

50 yards along the cobblestone road. The huge vehicle lurched through almost the whole formation and careened into a lamp post, its fenders bent and bloody.
The bus was operated by the Chatham and District Traction Company. Samson had worked for the firm for 40 years and was to have gone to the company offices today to receive a medal awarded him for 25 years of safe driving.
Police declined to say how fast the bus was going. Neither would they speculate on why it did not swing around the marching column.
British police usually withhold such information until a formal inquest.

Dick Dickinson Is Promoted in Japan

NAVAL CADET FROM HERSEY IS KILLED

Corpus Christi, Dec. 5—(AP)—The Navy today identified the cadet who was instantly killed at Cabaniss Field yesterday in the crash of a Bearcat fighter as John R. Cliffe, 22, of Hershey, Pa.
The fighter went into a spin just as Cliffe left his formation to make a landing approach. It crashed beside a runway.
Cliffe enlisted in the Navy in July, 1950. He had been at Cabaniss since September 12. He was the son of Mrs. Olive Cliffe, 222 East Granada, Hershey.

FORD CITY FIREMEN INJURED AT BLAZE

Pittsburgh, Dec. 5—(AP)—Two city firemen were injured today fighting a $5,000 blaze in a two-story brick building on the north side.
Acting Battalion Chief Lawrence Schramm, 50, was cut on the left hand by flying glass. Captain Raymond Utt, 41, was burned on the right hand. Firemen said the blaze started in a storage and distribution center of the Pittsburgh Press. It spread to the adjoining section of the building occupied by the Kennedy Printing Co. before being brought under control.

SCHOOL BOARD TAKES ANTI-COMMUNIST OATH

Ford City, Pa., Dec. 5—(AP)—State Senator Albert R. Pechan (R-Armstrong) has administered an anti-Communist oath to six members of the Ford City school board. The six took the oath voluntarily. One school board member was absent. Under a proposed bill sponsored by Pechan and now pending in the legislature, school teachers and other public employees would be required to take an oath. School board members are not included.

FUNNY BUSINESS

By Hershberger

"The new maid insisted—so George rigged it up with his power-mower unit!"

At most tables South decided to risk a contract of three no-trump. North usually raised clubs, and South then took the plunge in the hope that the opponents would open the wrong suit or that even their opening lead would not give them more than four immediate tricks.

Whenever three no-trump was tried, it went down. A spade opening was pretty automatic from either side of the table, and it always provided five immediate tricks to set the three no-trump contract.

At one table, Mimi Roncarelli, of Montreal, held the South hand and decided to try for game by making the invitational bid of three clubs. John Wiser, also of Montreal, responded with three hearts to show the location of his side strength.

This was a highly informative bid—not only for what it said out also for what it failed to say. Wiser promised heart strength with his bid, but he also denied spade strength. If he had held strength in two suits, he would have gone to three no-trump instead of three hearts.

Miss Roncarelli saw the handwriting on the wall. Her partner said he had no spade strength; and she had none in her own hand. A no-trump contract was clearly a bad gamble. Hence she bid the game in clubs instead.

The defenders might have taken two spade tricks, but West made the somewhat understandable opening of a trump. Now declarer could draw trumps, cash the top diamonds and enter dummy with a trump to discard a spade on the established ten of diamonds. Later on, the success of the heart finesse gave declarer twelve tricks for a well-earned top.

TIDIOUTE HIGH SURPRISES WARREN IN OPENING GAME; DEFEATS DRAGONS, 48-33

DOWN - RIVER BOYS' ATTACK STOPS LOCALS

A highly tutored Tidioute High quintet, with one veteran Joe Kelly mixed in with it, handed the Warren Dragons a 48-33, lacing in an eye-opener here on Beatty court last night. It was victory number two for Coach Charles Anderson and his team and chalked up a defeat for the Blue and White in their 1951-52 campaign curtain raiser.

Kelly (No. 3), a forward, pounded the hoop for nine FG's and made good six out of nine tries from the black stripe to walk off with half his team's points with a 24 total.

The attack set up by the Orange and Black squad hit Joe Massa and his Dragons as a surprise they were unable to overcome. The Dragon mentor shoved all 12 players into the lineup in an attempt to beat off the charges, but Tidioute matched anything the Dragons could do.

A nine-point deficit in the opening stanza hurt the inexperienced Warren five, as they held the Anderson men to a one-point advantage in the remaining periods. Four points made a big difference in the final score, Tidioute making 16 out of 24, while Warren only scored eight out of 18.

Returnees Kelly and Center Bob Schwab staged a nice defensive game for Tidioute, and fine performances were rendered by new members to this year's squad, Lydie Morrison, Jack McIntyre and Art Atkin.

The Massmen's trouble seemed to be mainly in the greenness of the team. Despite the slight height advantage the locals held, they couldn't take the proper control of the boards and the shooting was still somewhat rusty.

Massa shifted his defense from a 3-2 zone to man to man instantaneously, but still failed to stop the out-of-towners from driving in for layups.

Bernie Gray, senior forward, and junior center Ron Isaacson, both on the starting five, paced the Dragon scoring with 13 and 12 points respectively. Others in the lineup were Dave Berdine, forward, and Rickey Sealie and Jon Pearson, guards.

Scoring started with Kelly going in for a layup from the tipoff and from there on Tidioute held the lead to the finish.

With a 16-7 score to their good in the first eight minutes, the victors added two more to it to take a 27-16 lead at intermission. Warren picked up two points in the third quarter, and with only three minutes to go in the game Isaacson rapped one to cut the margin to seven, 34-41.

It was Isaacson's and Bernie Gray's close ups and Jon Pearson's set shots that put a little hope into the game for Warren spectators during the last half, but the early deficit cost them the verdict.

22 Players Named On Little College Team

New York, Dec. 5.—(P)—Twenty-two players—athletes representing schools not in the national limelight—won honors today on the Associated Press' annual little college All-America football team for 1951.

There is nothing "little" about the players themselves, nor about their ability. The squad, divided for the first time into offensive and defensive units, averages 6 feet 1 inch tall with some of the linemen pushing the scales to 245 pounds. The average age is 22.

Smethport Defeats Sheffield, 35-33, In Last Three Seconds

Burt, Smethport forward, found the hoop in the last three seconds of play last night to give his team a thrilling 35-33 victory over Sheffield High at Smethport.

Going into the final period, the Wolverines trailed by a single point margin, and Chuck Newman slipped in a FG with 20 seconds remaining to keep it anyone's ball game until Burt's heart-breaking two-point shot clinched the verdict.

Center Hamilton and Guard Lopez were the high point makers for Smethport High with 10 and nine respectively, with Jerry Carr, Sheffield forward, top man of the game with 12.

The loss was the first for the Santomen in three starts. Friday night the county five will invade Warren for their second road trip.

'Radio Umbrella' To Kill Minor League, Declares Troutman

By JACK HAND

Columbus, O., Dec. 5.—(P)—George Troutman sounded a grim warning today that minor league baseball cannot long survive the "radio umbrella" of major league broadcasts.

The president of the National Association of Minor Leagues told the opening session of the Golden Jubilee Convention "the solution is squarely in the hands of the individual club."

"It is the legal right (and moral obligation)," said Troutman, for each individual club to exercise a reasonable restraint over its broadcasting and telecasting policies.

Troutman said the minor league fans become more and more major league conscious because of "national" broadcasts that fill the air daily with highly colored descriptions of major league play.

The minor league delegates were reminded that their structure shrunk from 59 leagues and 444 clubs in '49 to 49 leagues and 365 clubs in '51 while attendance declined from 43,700,000 in '49 to 27,500,000 last season.

SPORTS-IN-BRIEF

By The Associated Press

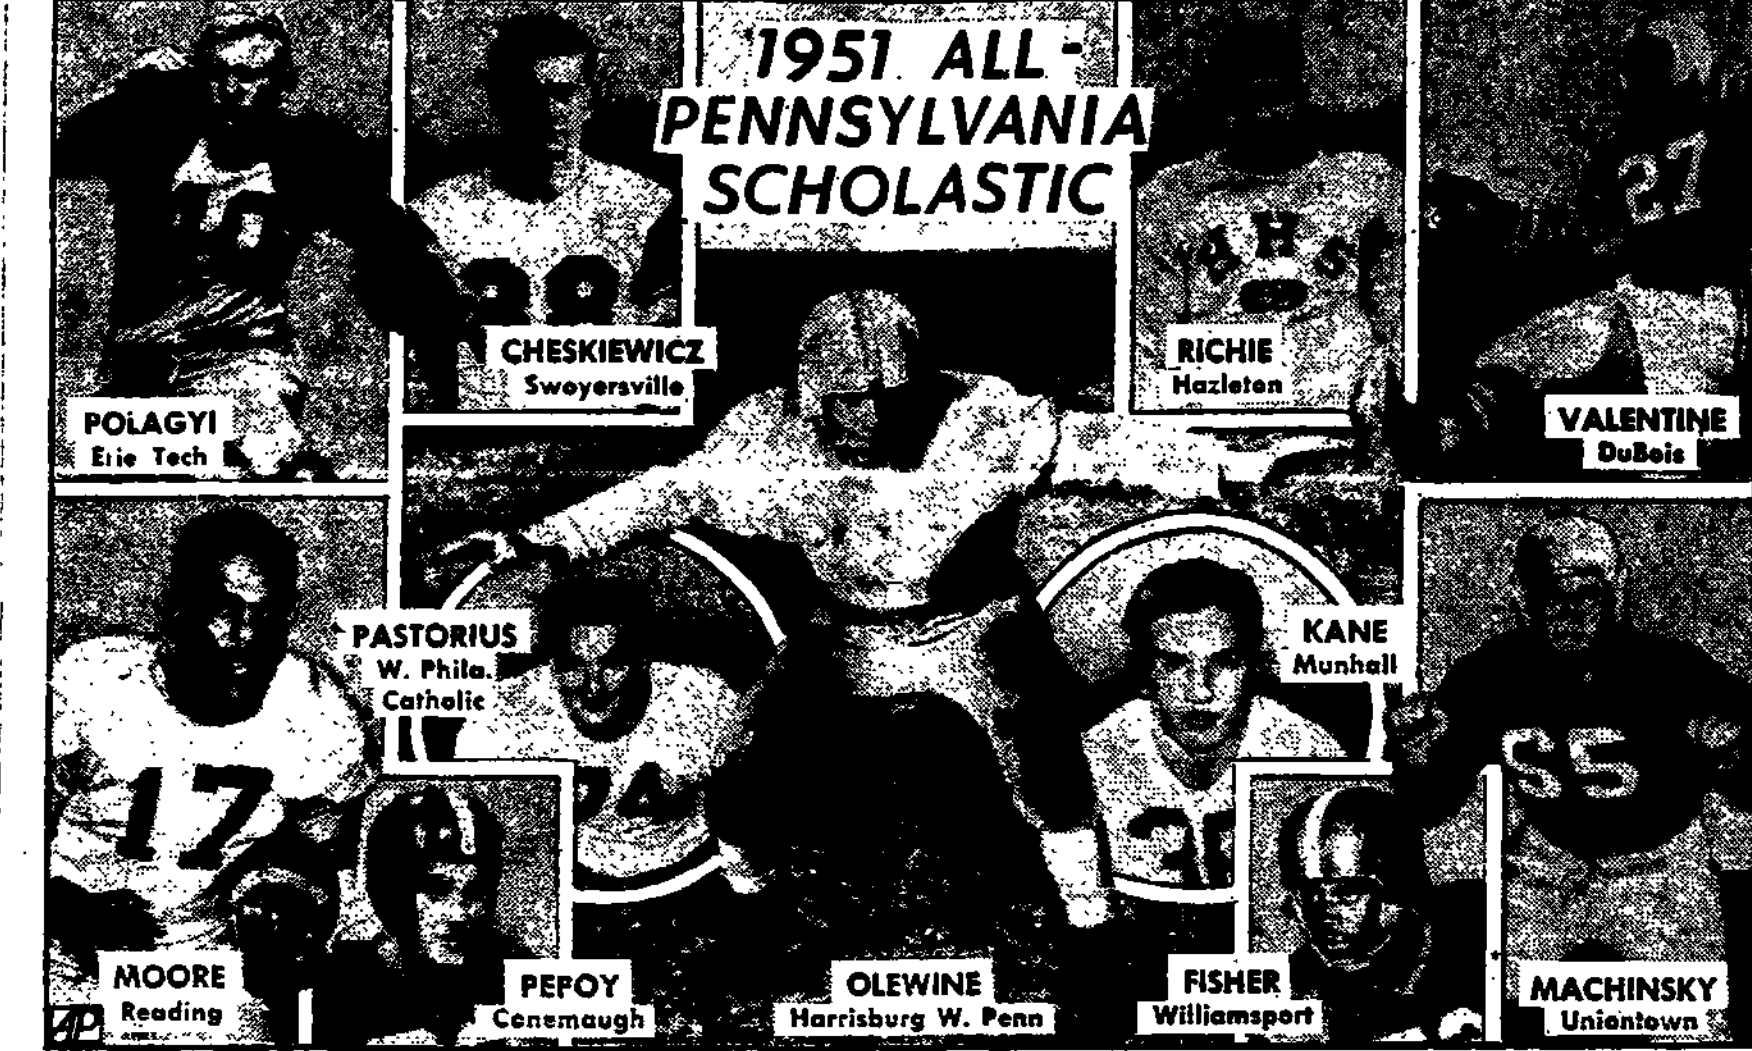

—Baseball—Columbus: The major leagues gave themselves a vote of confidence by virtually completing its player draft with selection of 153 players.

—General—New York—Dick Kazanier of Princeton was voted the Heisman award, given annually by the Downtown A. C. to the outstanding college football player in the country.

Kansas City—Mrs. Carol Durand, ace U. S. woman rider, will not be permitted to ride with the Olympic equestrian team in the 1952 Olympics.

London—Jimmy Slade, an unknown New Yorker, stopped British Empire light heavyweight champion Don Cockell in the fourth round of a scheduled ten-round.

—Racing—Miami—Two jockeys—Darrell Madden and Albert Widman—were injured and Kiss Me Quick, Widman's mount, died as a result of a triple spill at Tropical Park.

Warren Youngsters Look Good as They Win From Tidioute

Warren High Jayvees had much less trouble with their Tidioute friends than did the varsity, when they trimmed the Baby Orange and Black Dragons, 45-12 in a preliminary scrap at Beatty gym last night.

The 11-man squad made up of juniors and sophomores, looked quite promising even though their competition wasn't too great. Each member of the squad saw his share of action in the game, Bob Wilson and sophomore Gary Ettinger pacing the way with 10 points each.

On the whole the Dragonettes possessed some material that might work up into the first string.

The locals took an early, 15-3, start and continued to pour it on except in a low scoring third period when they tallied only four markers to Tidioute's one.

Pete Buckingham lead the losers with eight counters on three field goals and two free tosses.

Coach Joe Massa started a junior lineup, with Ron Wood and Bob Wilson as forwards, Jerry Leonard in the center position, and Don Smith and Dick Lundahl at the guard posts.

Roger Saylor Sets Up Standings For Districts of State

Penn. State sportsman-economist Roger S. Saylor, who has been compiling football standings as a hobby for years, prepared final standings for PIAA districts throughout the state this year.

Using his own formula, which he has been perfecting for five years, the youthful instructor has prepared standings for the entire state for the first time. He bases his ratings on the team's record and the strength of its schedule.

His top ten teams for Districts nine and ten are:

1—DuBois	483	8-1-0
2—Punxsutawney	479	8-1-0
3—Bradford	470	7-1-0
4—Ridgway	455	9-1-0
5—Greenville	419	6-2-1
6—Grove City	418	6-2-1
7—Corry	415	7-1-1
8—Meadville	414	6-2-2
9—Coudersport	409	6-2-0
10—Port Allegany	408	4-1-2

Second Team—Paluck, Swoyersville, end; Jankans, Reading, tackle; Cleveland, Gettysburg, guard; Shada, Allentown, center; D'Angelo, guard; Latronica, Pottsville, tackle; Waltz, Meadville, end; Chaplin, Pottstown, back; Hoffman, Farrell, back; Costanzo, Dunmore, back; Bishop, Punxsutawney, back.

Third Team—Tkac, Johnstown, end; Quadri, Erie Cath. Prep, tackle; Stelfax, Sunbury, guard; Pysher, Williamsport, center; Kelsay, Corry, guard; J. Thomas, West Scranton, end; Gober, Cass Twp., back; Wiggins, Clearfield, back; Fitzgerald, Ridley Twp., back; Bird, Titusville, back.

Through The Wind Tunnel

They do say that Nummy High-house went on a picnic, Monday. Funny time of year for a picnic, you say? Despite all counter attractions, Nummy came home with a fine buck. What's that remark about a bag of candy kisses? The dears like 'em!

Two New Castle hunters, Jesse Shaffer and Bill Sokewitz, who came to Warren county each year, and back again for this season, staying at the King tourist home, and Shaffer has already killed his buck.

A nice letter today from Jack Schumacher of Youngsville, new director of publicity for Gannon College, Erie. Everyone wishes Jack all the best in his new and responsible position. He promises us plenty of data about Warren county students there and says of young Hesht: "He is a great prospect."

Coaches Bob Williams, of Kane, and Frank Kamus, of Youngsville, were among fans at last night's game at Beatty. Williams and his Wolves will visit here on December 18, while the Eagles, not on the Warren schedule this season, play Tidioute January 11.

It has been announced that Ted Marchbroda, a Franklin lad, will be co-captain of next year's St. Bonaventure's football team along with Jack Romagnoli, of Canastota, N. Y.

Steve Eisenhower, Sheffield High grad in the class of 1949, is receiving plenty of praise these days for the outstanding game he played as first team guard for the U. S. Naval Academy against the West Point Cadets last Saturday. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Lo Eisenhower, Sheffield, Steve played first string tackle on the Wolverines squad for four years, suffering a broken neck in the St. Mary's game in 1948. But he then came back to complete his third year as a varsity cager. He was prepped for Annapolis at the Admiral Farragut school and played the grid game there in 1949. In 1950 young Steve entered the Academy and made the third string Pilebe team and by mid-season he was promoted to the first team squad, playing defensive center and offensive tackle. Several weeks ago he was moved up to the first team guard spot by Coach Erdelatz. Many area fans of a few years gone will remember Steve's father, Lo, who he coached Sheffield High football and basketball and had a string of

Wattsburg Cage Beat Grovers; Has An Excellent Team

Columbus, O., Dec. 5.—(P)—Fully aware that they must re-vamp their porous infield if they are to figure in flag contention, the Boston Braves are resigned to taking the wraps off southpaw Warren Spahn, to plug their weak shortstop position.

This came to light today when the Associated Press learned that the Braves were prepared to trade Spahn, one of the best pitchers in baseball, to the Philadelphia Phillies for shortstop Grady Hamner and righthander Emory (Bubba) Church.

Chance at Maxim At Stake Tonight In Cleveland Fight

Cleveland, Dec. 5.—(P)—Two top contenders for Joey Maxim's light heavyweight crown swap blows here tonight in the Cleveland News-Toyshop Fund boxing show.

Both Harry Matthews of Seattle, and Danny Nardico of Tampa, Fla., will be allowed to come in for the bout at Cleveland Arena over the light heavyweight limit. And Matthews' manager, Jack Hurley, says he is about ready to let his man stay over the weight.

Hurley declared the "chances of getting a fight" with the Cleveland champion "at an early date seems pretty hopeless now."

A former Seattle shipyard worker, Matthews is ranked as the No. 2 man in his division, but has been unable to get a shot at the champ. Hurley said he might enter his man in the heavyweight division.

Nardico, who was brought up at nearby Painesville, is an underdog in the betting. He lost on a TKO to Irish Bob Murphy when his eyebrow was cut. That was his only loss in 12 bouts this year.

Matthews outpointed Murphy, who later lost a challenge bout to Maxim.

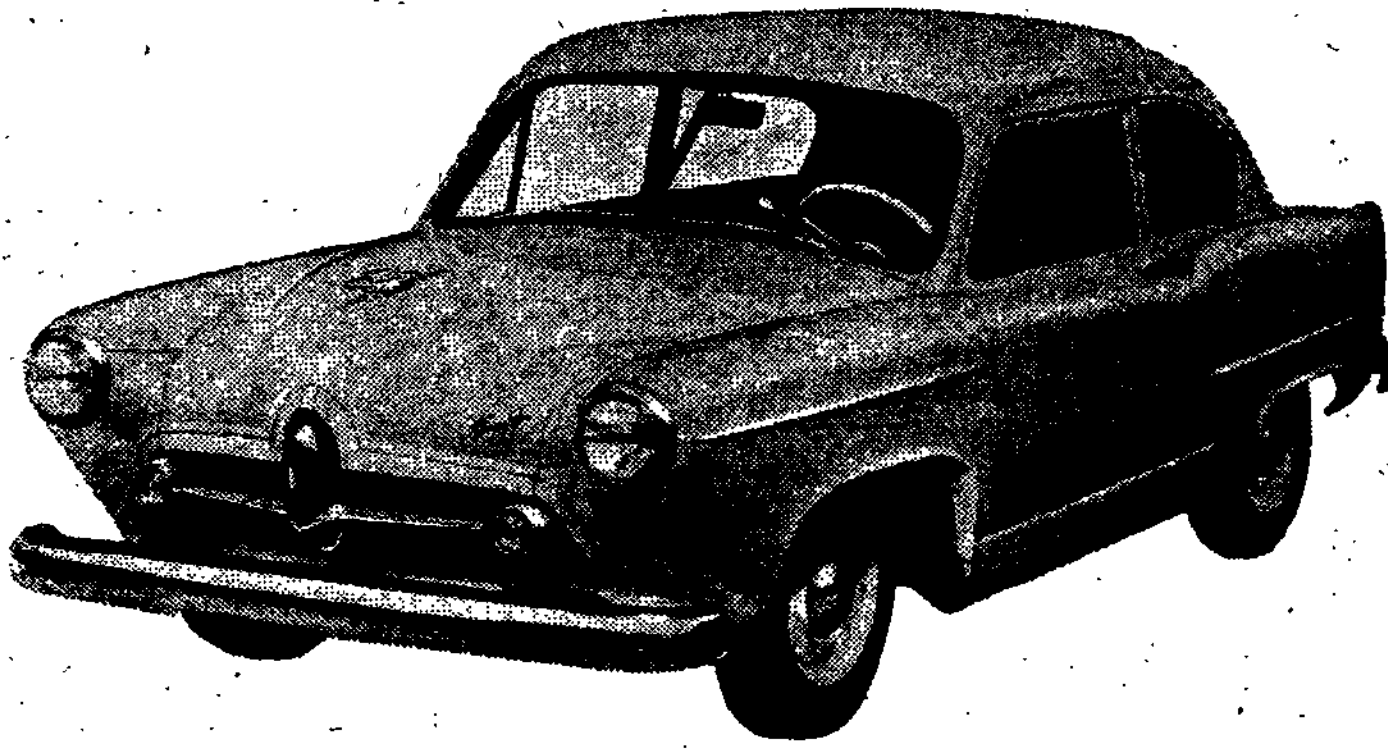

SUGAR GROVE JV'S LOSE TO WATTSBURG

Sugar Grove-Farmington Jayvees took a 45-21 walloping at the hands of the Wattsburg Seconds in a prelim tilt at Wattsburg last night.

Joe Klick ran wild as he pumped away 26 points for individual honors for Wattsburg. For the baby Grovers Jerry Frank had eight.

Score by quarters:
Wattsburg: 11 20 29 45
Sugar Grove 5 9 15 21

WHY ARE GOOD SALESMEN IN THE HIGH INCOME BRACKET? Because only one man in 100 can work 8 hours a day — week after week, without supervision. Think this is a joke?—It's an established fact!

There are however hundreds of men in the Erie area who could actually capitalize on their will to work and double their present income.

ANY man capable of handling even a routine office job intelligently can be successful in our field if he will follow the rules—are you such a man?

All you need is the ability to discipline your working hours to make $100 to $150 per week.
